

The Free Christian

Robert Lang-Kirchhöfer

Last modified: September 29th, 2023

Contents

1	Preface	3
1.1	Using hints	3
1.2	Thank you!	3
1.3	Some words about myself	3
2	What makes up a "Free Christian"?	3
2.1	No church community	3
2.2	The true bond	3
2.3	The Bible as a "tool"	4
2.4	Belief and science	4
3	The Ten Commandments	4
3.1	The Highest Offer	4
3.2	The First Offer	4
3.3	The Second Offer	4
3.4	The Third Offer	4
3.5	The Fourth Offer	5
3.6	The Fifth Offer	5
3.7	The Sixth Offer	5
3.8	The Seventh Offer	5
3.9	The Eighth Offer	5
3.10	The Ninth Offer	5
3.11	The Tenth Offer	5
4	My life with GOD	5
4.1	Wednesday, September 27th, 2023	6
4.2	Friday, September 29th, 2023	6

1 Preface

1.1 Using hints

It may happen that I will address you, the reader, directly. It may also happen that, whenever human beings in general are mentioned, I will use a potentially existing masculine form. My intension is to create a comfortable, casual atmosphere, and to ease reading flow. Of course, my dear reader, totally independent of your actual gender or sex, I am not making any assumptions about you, and you will have my fullest respect.

1.2 Thank you!

Next I want to state my cordial thanks to you, my dear reader, that you decided to take a look into this eBook. Of course, I hope that you also will read it until the end, and that you will watch its development. I am not a 100 percent sure that it will be "finished" one day, because possibly there will always be new thoughts, or new material that can be included in here. This here is a Christian document. My intention is to communicate moral values to you, especially as they are wished by GOD, the LORD, and HIS SON JESUS CHRIST, by my best knowledge and conscience. Of course I do not want to invent a new "religion", or to re-invent Christianity, but rather show some new perspectives. As you can tell of this preface, words, which directly relate to GOD, JESUS or also to the HOLY SPIRIT, are written in capital and bold letters. If something is near to your heart, or you have general ideas, I invite you sincerely, to participate in my GitHub discussion.

1.3 Some words about myself

Myself was baptized catholic, as far as I remember correctly, at the age of one or two years, but I left church in mid-August 2023. The reasons for this are of private nature, and are not relevant here. But this has nothing to do with my belief. I do believe that GOD exists, and that JESUS is the MESSIAH. Anyway, it does not mean that I am a kind of "perfect Christian", if such a person exists at all nowadays. You can read more about me in chapter "My life with GOD".

2 What makes up a "Free Christian"?

2.1 No church community

A Free Christian is not bound to a church community. That means, you can, but you do not have to be baptized. You can also have left your church. That does not play a role at all. The only important thing is, to let GOD, the LORD, and JESUS CHRIST come into your life, and that you confess yourself to THEM.

2.2 The true bond

For me, the only true, existing bond is between GOD, JESUS CHRIST and me. When I confess myself to THEM, I cherish my relationship sincerely. Mundane bonds (relationships) are ephemeral, although it is not less important, to also cherish them warmly.

2.3 The Bible as a "tool"

If it serves the relationship between GOD, JESUS and me, I have the freedom to interpret biblical passages better, that means more modern or more understandable, and rephrase them accordingly. But this is not a "licence", to rewrite the Word of GOD by free convenience, and then for example to bend HIS will, as it was done willingly in the past by the catholic church, according to my information and my research.

2.4 Belief and science

Faith and science are, in my opinion, not mutually exclusive. GOD can neither be proven, nor refuted. You always have free choice, whether you want to live with GOD, or not. That is, why you as a human being have been given free will.

3 The Ten Commandments

The traditional 10 commandments are usually handed down from the viewpoint of GOD, that means in the form of "Thou shalt (not) ...", or more modern "You shall (not) ...". Below are the 10 commandments from your own viewpoint, as if yourself would talk to GOD, and make them a promise to HIM. They are also worked out a bit better, because on closer consideration, some commandments can be summarized. Of course, that does not mean that I refuse, or decline the traditional GOD given commandments. I just want to show another perspective. In addition I will call them "offers", to emphasize the good will of both sides.

3.1 The Highest Offer

The Highest Offer is: I will love and praise GOD, the LORD, sincerely with all of my heart. And I will love my neighbour, as I also do myself.

3.2 The First Offer

THOU art the LORD, my GOD, my SAVIOUR. I will not have other gods before or besides THEE, and I will not praise or worship them. And I will not create an idol or a graven image.

3.3 The Second Offer

THOU art the LORD, my GOD. I will not misuse THY name. I will not slander or blaspheme against THEE. And I will confess myself honestly to THEE.

Short hint: This should also include colloquial phrases, such as "Oh (my) G...", or "For G...’s sake", that you say quickly, but without really meaning GOD HIMSELF, or to pray to HIM, or something similar.

3.4 The Third Offer

THOU art the LORD, my GOD. I will not put THEE to the test. I will not try THEE. Also in need I will confess myself to THEE.

Short hint: This is also intended to cover situations, in which one carelessly says such things as, for example, how GOD can allow this or that suffering.

3.5 The Fourth Offer

THOU art the LORD, my GOD. I will sanctify and keep the Sabbath to THEE. On Sabbath I will stay abstinent of fleshly and addictive things.

3.6 The Fifth Offer

I will praise my father and my mother, who gave my life to me, and raised and nourished me. And I will praise Elder People.

3.7 The Sixth Offer

I will not kill or murder. I will cherish my relationships. I will respect life and the wellbeing of all living beings, and I will protect them as far as possible.

Short hint: The killing here is not just literal, meaning physically, but also symbolic, for example, by saying something to someone out of anger, what hurts him, and thus damages the relationship. Feel free to read the Bible passage Matthew 5, 21-22.

3.8 The Seventh Offer

I will not commit adultery. I will not covet my neighbour's woman or wife. I will not covet my neighbour's man or husband.

3.9 The Eighth Offer

I will not steal or betray. I will not rob or kidnap. I will not covet my neighbour's house. I will not covet my neighbour's belongings. I will not cause harm to my neighbour's belongings.

3.10 The Ninth Offer

I will not bear false witness against my neighbour. I will not lie or betray. I will not swear. I will act honestly and fairly against my neighbour.

3.11 The Tenth Offer

My body is a present of THINE, and therefore it is holy. I will honour and cherish it.

4 My life with GOD

This big chapter is a kind of diary, how I experience my journey with and to GOD, and all the things a may learn on it.

4.1 Wednesday, September 27th, 2023

I have been on a kind of journey since mid-2023, on which I decided to let GOD and JESUS in my life. I still do have a lot of flaws, and despite of the GOD given commandments (offers), I sin much too often. As mentioned in the preface, I am still far, far away of being a kind of "perfect Christian". Many of my everyday habits, of my character and other stuff, they have such a strong pulling effect that often I do not think of GOD, and I do not pray, and read the Bible, as often as I would like to. And whenever GOD comes "back again" into my thinking, I often have a guilty conscience, because for me it feels like I have "forgotten" HIM. So, long story short: I may still learn a lot and way too much!

4.2 Friday, September 29th, 2023

Today I watched a video that gave me a lot to think about. I do not know, whether it is blasphemy. Still, I want to share with you, what I saw in it. It was basically a short cartoon, in which a Muslim woman, an atheist and a Christian went to heaven. Since you haven't really seen GOD HIMSELF here, but just a caricature, I will use normal capitalization here. So it was all about, which statements God feels insulted and offended by. And in the end he gave the atheist his peace, and actually sent him to heaven, because he never believed in God, and neither said one thing nor the other about him. And he, God, was disappointed in the Muslim and in the Christian, because they basically represented him as such an "evil" God, as if he would simply throw all people into hell, who sin and do not believe in him. That hurt him very much, because he effectively felt like a cruel monster. This so far is the short version. And that got me thinking. Of course, I can only speculate. But maybe it is like that, that GOD is not "sending" us anywhere. If we choose HIM, HE invites us to stay in Heaven after death. And if we choose, for example, the devil, then it truly may be, that we will go to hell. But not because GOD sends us there, but because the devil takes us away. Like I said... I do not know. This video just made me think. Because, certainly, it may often be the case, that one might say this or that about GOD, but he or she actually does not know, what is the real truth. But what you can do at least, is to think about it first, when you say something about GOD, whether you would want to be told similar things about yourself. If you would like to make your own judgment about the video, here is the link: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=ttevamkS6gw>.